GLOBAL COLLABORATION

EVIDENCE BASED POLICING

Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between:

The Global Societies of Evidence-Based Policing (GSEBP) Member Organisations from:

- The United Kingdom
- Australia and New Zealand
- The United States of America
- Canada
- The Netherlands

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is set forth by the undersigned member organisations (members), collectively forming the Global Societies of Evidence-Based Policing (GSEBP), with the shared aim of promoting the use of data, evidence and insight to enhance community safety, and the efficient, effective and legitimate delivery of policing through the core principles of evidence-based policing; targeting, testing, tracking and telling.

GLOBAL COLLABORATION

EVIDENCE BASED POLICING

Objectives:

Members agree to collaborate on the following objectives:

- Facilitate the exchange of research, what-works, and data-driven insights among policing and law enforcement agencies globally.
- Develop training programs and educational resources to promote the understanding and application of evidence-based policing.
- Encourage the integration of rigorous applied scientific research into policing policies and practices.
- Foster initiatives that enhance the effectiveness, efficiency, and fairness of policing delivery.
- Promote ethical standards and human rights in the development and implementation of policing strategies.
- Cultivate partnerships between policing organisations, academic institutions, policymakers, and communities.
- Actively support and amplify the activities of all SEBP's, including conferences and the use of the global collaboration brand.
